

Saxo Bank (Switzerland) Ltd. rewards existing clients with a referral bonus of up to CHF 1'500.-- for referring a new client who opens an account with Saxo Bank (Switzerland) Ltd. due to the recommendation.

- The referral bonus for the referring client equals CHF 300.-- if the minimum deposit of the referred new client is at least equal to CHF 10'000.-- and the new client has executed a minimum of 10 trades within 90 days after account activation
- The referral bonus for the referring client equals CHF 1'000.-- if the minimum deposit of the referred new client is at least equal to CHF 100'000.-- and the new client has executed a minimum of 20 trades within 90 days after account activation
- The referral bonus for the referring client equals CHF 1'500.-- if the minimum deposit of the referred new client is at least equal to CHF 200'000.-- and the new client has executed a minimum of 30 trades within 90 days after account activation

The referring client acknowledges that he will only receive the referral bonus of up to CHF 1'500.-- if the referred new client agrees that the referring client can be informed about the account opening and if the bank does not oppose an account opening (e.g. due to regulatory reasons or internal rules).

The referral bonus will be paid out not later than 90 days after expiration of the promotion period on December 31, 2019. In order to take advantage of this offer the referring client must have been an existing client of Saxo Bank (Switzerland) Ltd. for at least three months.

The referring client has no rights whatsoever on the account of the referred new client without the explicit authorization of the new client (e.g. in case of giving a power of attorney).

The referred new client explicitly agrees with the account opening request that the person who referred him/her will be informed when the new account with Saxo Bank (Switzerland) Ltd. has been opened and activated. Furthermore, the new referred client agrees that the person who referred him/her will be indirectly informed about the band width of the deposit of the referred client due to the value of the referral bonus.

The referred new client, on the other hand, profits from a bonus of up to CHF 750.--:

- The bonus for the referred new client equals CHF 200.-- if the minimum deposit of the referred new client is at least equal to CHF 10'000.-- and the new client has executed a minimum of 10 trades within 90 days after account activation
- The bonus for the referred new client equals CHF 500.-- if the minimum deposit of the referred new client is at least equal to CHF 100'000.-- and the new client has executed a minimum of 20 trades within 90 days after account activation
- The bonus for the referred new client equals CHF 750.-- if the minimum deposit of the referred new client is at least equal to CHF 200'000.-- and the new client has executed a minimum of 30 trades within 90 days after account activation

The bonus for the referred new client will be paid out not later than 90 days after expiration of the promotion period on December 31, 2019.

Saxo Bank (Switzerland) Ltd. reserves the right to examine every account opening and to deny the opening of an account, if the account opening request does not fulfil regulatory or internal requirements. In such a case, no referral bonus for the referring client and bonus for the referred new client will be paid. This offer will not be valid if the conditions are not fulfilled or the deadline is not met. This offer is not valid in combination with other offers by Saxo Bank (Switzerland) Ltd. The offer is valid until 31st of December 2019.
